Located at the heart of campus on the lawn of the Freiburger Residence Hall, the gazebo will serve as a central meeting spot for students and provide a perfect area to host campus events. Thanks to all of the 2011 graduates who contributed to this gift. This gazebo will symbolize your lasting ties to Lynn University.

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER: Jeb Bush

Jeb Bush was elected the 43rd governor of the State of Florida on Nov. 3, 1998, and was reelected by a wide margin in 2002. His second term as governor ended in January 2007.

Bush earned a bachelor's degree in Latin American Affairs from the University of Texas at Austin and moved to Florida in 1981. With business partner Armando Codina, he started a small real estate development company, which grew to become the largest, full-service commercial real estate company in South Florida.

Bush served as Florida's secretary of commerce under Bob Martinez, Florida's 40th governor. As secretary of commerce, Bush promoted Florida's business climate worldwide. Following an unsuccessful bid for governor in 1994, Bush founded the nonprofit Foundation for Florida's Future, which joined forces with the Greater Miami Urban League to establish one of the state's first charter schools. He also co-authored Profiles in Character, a book profiling 14 of Florida's civic heroes—people making a difference without claiming a single news headline.

After his election, Bush focused on reforming education. Florida students have made the greatest gains in achievement, and Florida is one of a handful of states that have closed the achievement gap. In addition, Bush cut taxes every year during his tenure as governor, and Florida led the nation in job growth. Bush put Florida on the forefront of consumer healthcare advances by signing Medicaid reform legislation, "Empowered Care," in June 2006.

Today, Bush heads his own successful consulting business, Jeb Bush and Associates. His clients range from small technology start-ups to well-known Fortune 500 companies. He is also the chairman of Foundation for Excellence in Education, a national foundation focused on education reform.

Bush is the son of former President George H.W. Bush and Barbara Bush. He lives in Miami with his wife, Columba, and they have three children.

STUDENT SPEAKER: Haley Ann Pratt

Haley Pratt, a business administration major from Greenwood, Ind., has excelled as both a student and athlete at Lynn University. For her academic work, she earned Dean's List recognition for all of her eight semesters at Lynn. Lettering in volleyball, Haley achieved the most all-time blocks in a career and made the All-Region team in 2010.

Haley has fulfilled important responsibilities in Housing and Residence Life, working as a resident assistant (RA) for one year and community advisor for two years. She has served as president of the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee and as a member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and the Knights of the Roundtable. She has also been a cast member in several Lynn Drama productions.

Her additional honors include RA of the Year in 2009, Silent Leader of the Year in 2010, and selection by Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges in 2011.

Following graduation, Haley plans to work in marketing and sales for Brightpoint, Inc. in Barcelona, Spain. The company is one of the world's largest distributors of mobile phones.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

Lending color to the pageantry of commencement are the academic robes and hoods worn by the faculty and students. This regalia reaches back into the medieval ages, when it served a functional as well as an ornamental role, separating the learned men from other groups and offering warmth and protection.

In America in the late 19th century, a conference was held by representatives of colleges and universities to bring some order and system to the custom of academic dress. Since then, there have been periodic conferences to revise or reconfirm existing practices.

Essentially, undergraduates wear the black robes with the white collars. Holders of the master's degree wear hoods which are lined with the colors of the college conferring the degree and trimmed with the color representing the subject in which the degree was earned. The doctoral robe is adorned with velvet and is also worn with the hood suitably ornamented.

Holders of degrees from foreign universities or religious orders wear the entire academic costume as decreed by the conferring institution.

The following list reflects the colors which will be found on the hoods worn in the academic procession and the subject each represents.

Arts, Letters, Humanities	White
Commerce, Business	Drab
Communication	Crimson
Economics	Copper
Education	Light blue

THE GONFALONS

The gonfalons, a tradition that has origins in the civic rituals of 12th century Italy, were introduced last year to Lynn University's academic ceremonial protocol.

Lynn University's gonfalons were designed in accordance with standards established for all colleges and universities and bear each college's unique symbolic colors. The common bonds that unite faculty and students as members of one academic community are embodied in the display of the university's seal on each individual gonfalon. The vice president for academic affairs, in consultation with the academic deans, selects the faculty members honored to serve as gonfalon bearers.

THE CEREMONIAL ACADEMIC MACE

The academic mace traces its origins to the 14th century, when the royal scepter historically carried by rulers and the battle mace were combined to produce the ceremonial academic mace. It was carried in processions of royalty, magistrates, and church or university officials.

During the commencement ceremony, the mace indicates the authority of the university president to award degrees. The mace is carried by the chief marshal.

The Lynn University mace consists of a three-foot tall wood scepter with a bronze cast of the Lynn University seal on the top. It was designed in 2002 by Graphic Design Professor Emeritus Ernest Ranspach, who presented it to Lynn University President Emeritus Donald E. Ross in honor of 30 years of leadership and service.

This program is not an official graduation list. This printed program lists students who were eligible to graduate for academic year 2010-11, as of April 1, 2011, pending the outcome of final examinations and final grades. Therefore, it should not be used to determine a student's academic or degree status. The university's official registry for the conferral of degrees is the student's permanent academic record, kept by the Office of the Registrar, Lynn University, 3601 N. Military Trail, Boca Raton, FL 33431.

LYNN UNIVERSITY
ALMA MATER

Under skies of blue
We've made friends so true
From every corner of the world
Celebrating different cultures
Made us see our world anew.

From this caring place
We will squarely face
The challenge of our destiny
Like our Fighting Knights
We'll lift hearts and sights
And we'll go forth in victory

And if our blue skies should turn to grey days
Or we misplace a dream or two
We'll remember Alma Mater
And then Her spirit will see us through.

So let's raise our voice
In a proud refrain
Remembering good times we all knew
Hail all hail our Alma Mater
Lynn University...Here's to you!
